Ensuring Success*

Introducing the Loyalty Society of Miami's Alpha Delta Phi

Alpha Delta Phi's long history at Miami University spans more than 175 years. In recent years, hundreds of generous alumni have given thousands of dollars to sustain that history by renovating our beautiful old mansion at 22 South Campus and by re-founding the undergraduate chapter.

But our experience has shown that a chapter's long-term stability depends on ongoing involvement by the alumni body (not just the Realty Board). We need a steady flow of alumni participation to sustain our now-restored chapter, so we can regain our place as a top-five fraternity at Miami.

Who should join the Loyalty Society?

Alpha Delt alumni have been very generous. But not everyone can afford to give thousands of dollars. Providing steady, loyal support is another rewarding way to show dedication and leadership. The Loyalty Society provides an opportunity to show your dedication to Alpha Delta Phi at Miami, and to join the community of brothers who share your dedication.

How will the Loyalty Society funds be used?

The funds will support final pieces of the renovation, supplement operations as the chapter becomes fully self-supporting, fund undergraduate scholarships, pay chapter advisor stipends, and enable alumni communications and special events.

How do I join?

Join the Loyalty Society by pledging a specific amount of money each year for the next three years. There are four levels of membership:

Can I support the chapter if I can't join the Loyalty Society?
